CASE REPLY INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE FLORIDA STATEWIDE PROVIDER AND HEALTH PLAN CLAIM DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROGRAM

1. A case has been filed with Capitol Bridge involving you/your company under the Florida Statewide Provider and Health Plan Claim Dispute Resolution program, as established by Florida law. Information about this program has been provided in this mailing. A copy of the entire filing should have been sent to you by the filing party at the time of the initial filing. This claim has been accepted for full review by Capitol Bridge. At this time, you must complete the enclosed Responding Party Claim Rebuttal Form for each Claim Description Form filed. These Forms must be completely filled out. Be certain to include dates of service, service type and patient names on the Claim Rebuttal Forms, so that they can be matched to Claim Description Forms supplied by the filing party.

2. Provide all supporting documentation not supplied by the filing party. This information should include the

   a. Claim forms submitted to the Health Plan
   b. A copy of the denial(s) from the Health Plan
   c. Medical records
   d. A copy of the contract between the Provider and Health Plan
   e. Copies of all other information needed to support your position regarding these claims.
   f. Court documentation supporting a claim of exclusion under section 408.7057(2)(b)6., Florida Statutes (if applicable), including case caption, case number, and evidence that the disputed claim is the basis for a pending state or federal court action.

3. Also, send a copy of all of the information being provided to Capitol Bridge to the filing party.

4. Provide a copy of a receipt for certified mail or other delivery service proof that you have sent this information to the filing party.

5. Health Plans may file claims for overpayment that have been denied by Providers. When this type of claim is filed, the supporting documentation must include:

   a. the notice of overpayment and
   b. any response received from the Provider.

6. Please use the appropriate page to describe your position. Additional pages may be attached, if needed.

7. Submit your reply within 15 days of receipt of this request. Please do not hesitate to contact the Florida Claims Dispute Resolution Project, at flcdr@capitolbridge.com if you have any questions. If you do not provide a response and/or have not contacted Capitol Bridge by this date to request an extension, Capitol Bridge shall recommend to the Agency for Health Care Administration that a default final order be issued in full favor of the Filing Party and against the Responding Party.
